HOME ACCESS GRANT

Home Access is a government drive that helps low-income families who currently lack access to a computer and/or internet to get online at home.

The programme is aimed at those that need it most. If you are a low-income family in receipt of certain benefits you could qualify for a grant to buy a computer and/or a minimum of one year's internet access.

Quick eligibility check

Take the quick eligibility check below. You may be able to qualify for a Home Access Grant if you answer YES to three questions in Section one, and at least one question in Section two.

Section One:

Are you a parent or carer responsible for and living with a child...

...who is in school years 3 to 9 inclusive?

...who attends a state-maintained school in England full time?

...who has not already had a computer from a Home Access Grant or similar programme, such as Computers for Pupils?

Section Two:

Do you receive at least one of the following?

- Free school meals for your child
- Income based Jobseeker's Allowance
- Income support
- Child Tax Credit but not Working Tax Credit and an income of less than £16,190
- Guaranteed Pension Credit (not Savings Credit)
- Income-based Employment Support Allowance
- Support under Part VI of the Immigration and Asylum Act 1999
