

Midhurst Rother College

The best in everyone™

A member of United Learning Trust

Lieutenant Colonel Tex Pemberton OBE
Chairman of the Personnel and Premises Committee
West Sussex

Employment: Military Service and education; writing military operational doctrine. Born and educated in York and called for National Service at the age of 18. Retired after 47 years military service with the Army and 12 years (overlapping) as an elected member of West Sussex County Council, being a Member of the Council Cabinet 10 of these years; appointed as the West Sussex County Council Local Authority Governor to the Governing body of Midhurst Rother College.

Networks: Member of the National Yellow School Bus Commission; Trustee of Royal Military Police military museum and Benevolent Fund; Life President of the Surrey Branch of the National Malaya and Borneo Veterans Association; formerly a Chartered Member of the Institute of Personnel and Development.

Interests: Polo; gardening; military history; protecting the environment; fund-raising in support of military charities.