The activity will be based around a food stall, with number practice, learning food and produce vocabulary, buying produce dialogues, role-plays around simple ordering and making food at an outdoor café.

Students will need to be at Midhurst Rother College reception at no earlier than 9.20am for a 9.30am start and collected from there at 2.30pm. The students will need to bring lunch and a drink. Please note that we are unable to help with transport and that the journey between home and the College is the responsibility of parents and carers.
