

Sport Relief From Lands End to John O'Groats

Students and staff from Midhurst Rother College cycles 854 miles last week, the distance from Lands End to John O'Groats, to raise money for Sport Relief. Students spent their PE lessons throughout the week on exercise bikes with staff joining them throughout the day on Friday for a final push to reach their goal, while a cake sale also helped them towards their fundraising target.