Employment

Worked in Primary Education for over 30 years – started out in London before moving to Midhurst in 1992. I have worked in various roles within primary schools in West Sussex, taught all primary age year groups, small group booster classes, supply, worked as a school SENCo, PE lead and an Assistant Head. I was appointed as Headteacher of Midhurst Primary in 2015 and am now retired.

Skills

My skills are in education – as a local year 6 teacher I was heavily involved in the transition for students from primary to secondary school and understand the importance of this process. I believe strongly in collaboration between schools and across provisions. I am passionate about good quality education being accessible to all and am an advocate for children with additional needs.

Interests

I am a keen walker and very much enjoy living within the South Downs. I love gardening and attempting DIY at home generally – not that I'm great at it! Love to travel - often following our youngest son running his latest marathon.
