Part of United Learning

Name: Ms Sara Reynolds

Governor:
Graffham, West Sussex

Further/Higher Education: BA (Hons) Music and Related Arts, ARAM (Hon. Associate of Royal Academy of Music), Montessori trained

Employment: Director of Performing Arts and Houseparent, Seaford College

Skills: Teaches singing, runs choirs, directs Opera and Musical Theatre. Oversees the Heads of Department and Peripatetic staff in Music, Drama and Dance. Organises and oversees concerts and performances alongside exams. Runs a Year 13 boarding house for girls.

Attributes: A problem solver with a 'can do' attitude. I have a strong sense of duty and moral compass with a determination to guide and encourage young people to be their best selves in all they do.

Network: Previously Head of Voice at JRAM, London. Has taught at Charterhouse, Portsmouth Grammar School, Lord Wandsworth College, St Margaret's, Midhurst. Ran a Montessori school after qualifying and before and after the Music degree. Directed a Gilbert and Sullivan society for around 10 years. Sang many roles in Operas and Musicals, both as soloist and ensemble before the love of soul music, fronting a successful band, jazz and good living ruined the voice!

Interests: Training classical singers, watching staged works of all/any genres, reading, concerts, board games, travel, animals and family.
